

Sisterhood Presents Rosh Chodesh Adar

TAKING A STAND AS JEWISH WOMEN

FEBRUARY 20, 2018, 7PM

Diana Ayton-Shenker is an award-winning social entrepreneur working to build a more just, sustainable, and vibrant future in sustainable development, innovative philanthropy, human rights and humanitarian relief, public health, and the arts. She is the founder of Global Momenta, a philanthropic and social innovation company.

Come Early!

Join us at 6:45 for Meet & Greet and Wine and Cheese

Presentation will start at 7pm

Through guided meditation, prompted discussion, and collective inquiry we will explore where, when, and how we take a stand as Jewish women. We will draw on insights and examples from our own experience, the legacy of Jewish women as role models, and the inspiration of contemporary acts of courage.